Important note:

Parent-Teacher Conferences (PTC) are being held at Scott's Campus.

This is the first PTC for the year and is before Assessment 1 (For Grades 7, 8, 9 & 10) and which begins on Wednesday, September 2, 2026. Therefore, I request you to make use of this opportunity to discuss classroom habits of your son/daughter and strategies for exam preparation. Please keep the discussion around academics and if you have any concerns regarding behavioural issue then you may seek additional appointment with HRT/Coordinator at a later date.

The following may help you to make the best use of time allotted for the meeting:

1. Come prepared with specific questions.
2. Seek clarification on immediate concerns only.
3. Ask the teacher for additional support for your child if required.
4. Ask teachers about study tips for your daughter/son.
5. Ask teachers about how best to support your child at home during the examination time.
6. Discuss topics/chapters that will be assessed during the examination and materials/resources required for preparation.
7. Please stick to your child and their academic achievement only.

Regards

Dr. Kris Bhatt (Senior Principal, Secondary)
